Trade Names

Source: Better Business Bureau

Trade names and corporate names are registered in Alberta at the Corporate Registry in Edmonton. Trade names and partnerships are outlined in the Partnership Act. A copy of this Act can be found in Calgary at the Queen's Printer Bookstore at 455 - 6th Street S.W. or by contacting the Edmonton location at 310-0000 and asking for 427-4952. They will send you a copy. A trade name, or business name is required when a person or corporation operates a business under a different name than their own. This name must be registered at the Corporate Registry. Under this act, there is no requirement for the name to be unique. Any number of people or businesses can use the name, however, there can be legal difficulties if a name is common. Therefore, it is recommended that you do a Name Search at a Search House to see if the name that you are considering is already in use.

You can find a Search House by looking in the Yellow Pages under Searchers of Records, or by calling the Corporate Registry at 297-3442. A trade name or a partnership cannot include any of the following words: Limited, Incorporated, Corporation, or Limited Partnership.

Corporations are different legally than Partnerships or Trade Names. A name of a corporation is registered under the Business Corporations Act, which is available at the Queen's Print Bookstore as well. The name of the corporation must be unique. The company must run a check on the proposed corporate name through a local search house and if there are no similar names, the company can then register their corporate name with the Corporate Registry.

Corporations that are registered federally are registered in Ottawa under Federal Consumer and Corporate Affairs. If these federal companies wish to operate in Alberta they must register with the Corporate Registry.

If an Alberta company already has registered their corporate name and the Federal company has the same name, the Federal company will register in Alberta under an assumed name. While it is not necessary to hire a lawyer to form a corporation or a partnership, you should be aware of your legal rights and responsibilities before registering. For further information, please contact the Corporate Registry at 297-3442, 24 hours a day.

EGGPLANTS

A grocer put up a sign that read "Eggplants, 25¢ each -- three for a dollar."

All day long, customers came in exclaiming, "Don't be ridiculous! I should get four for a dollar!"

Meekly, the grocer capitulated and packaged four eggplants. The tailor next door had been watching these antics and finally asked the grocer, "Aren't you going to fix the mistake on your sign?"

"What mistake?" the grocer asked. "Before I put up that sign no one ever bought more than one eggplant."

ELEVATOR REPAIR

Soon after our high-tech company moved into a new building, we had trouble with the elevators. A manager got stuck between floors and, after some door banging, finally attracted attention. His name was taken and rescue promised.

It took two hours before the elevator mechanic arrived and got the manager out. When he returned to his desk, he found this note from his efficient secretary: "The elevator people called and will be here in two hours."

BLONDE INTERVIEW

The executive was interviewing a young blonde for a position in his company. He wanted to find out something about her personality so he asked, "If you could have a conversation with someone, living or dead, who would it be?"

The blonde quickly responded, "The living one."

WE DELIVER

The owner of a small deli was being questioned by Revenue Canada about his tax return. He had reported a net profit of $80,000 for the year.

"Why don't you people leave me alone?" the deli owner said. "I work like a dog, everyone in my family helps out, the place is only closed three days a year...and you want to know how I made $80,000?"

"It's not your income that bothers us," the agent said. "It's these deductions. You listed six trips to Bermuda for you and your wife."

"Oh, that," the owner said smiling. "Didn't I mention? We deliver anywhere..."
