Peter Cottontail

The beautiful lyrics of the Easter song Peter Cottontail is dedicated to kids. The song by Steve Nelson & Jack Rollins, focuses its attention on Peter Cottontail, who is just another Santa Claus, who goes about distributing gifts to people. For somebody, he's got jellybeans, while for others; he is carrying a basket full of Easter joy. Well, the important thing that makes a difference is that, wherever he goes, he showers his blessings on people.

Peter Cottontail

By: Steve Nelson & Jack Rollins

*Here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hopping' down the bunny trail,
Hippity, hoppity,
Easter's on its way.*

*Bringing' every girl and boy
Baskets full of Easter joy,
Things to make your Easter bright and gay.
He's got jellybeans for Tommy,
Colored eggs for sister Sue,
There's an orchid for your Mommy
And an Easter bonnet, too.*

*Oh! here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hopping' down the bunny trail,
Hippity hoppity,
Happy Easter day.*

*Here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hopping' down the bunny trail,
Look at him stop, and listen to him say:
"Try to do the things you should."
Maybe if you're extra good,
He'll roll lots of Easter eggs your way.*

*You'll wake up on Easter morning
And you'll know that he was there
When you find those chocolate bunnies
That he's hiding everywhere.*

*Oh! here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hopping' down the bunny trail,
Hippity hoppity,
Happy Easter day.*

Hot Cross Buns

Easter hot cross buns recipe is not just a yummy dish that is served on Easter festivity, but the cross-pastry icing that is done on the bun, reminds us of the cross on which Jesus was crucified. Eating hot cross buns is a tradition that is passed over from one generation to another. From the Pagan times, it has been a custom to eat Easter symbol, hot cross buns at the breakfast time on Good Friday. And since then, this tradition has become a major part of Easter celebration.

One can relish the different flavors of hot cross buns that are added on in different proportions to make a perfect combo of sweet, spicy and fruity taste. These hot cross buns are baked at home in the oven and served hot. That is why they are called hot cross buns. These buns sell like hot cakes during Easter springtime, fetching a good business to the bakery shops.

Everything has some or the other superstition related to it. So is the case with hot cross buns too. People have a belief that hot cross buns protect us from evil spirits and have a magical power of curing. This explains the reason why in ancient times, people used to hang these buns on the kitchen ceilings. This Easter, enjoy the delicious hot cross buns and don't forget to serve it hot.
