AIRDRIE FAITH BUILD

Attention all Grades 4, 5, and 6 students!

Habitat for Humanity's Airdrie Faith Build is inviting all Grades 4, 5 and 6 students to participate in a national writing contest sponsored by Genworth Financial Canada. Students are being challenged to make a difference in their community by writing a short poem, essay or composition of 200 to 600 words explaining what home means to them. The grand prize winner will take part in the ultimate gift – a new Habitat Home for a deserving family. Genworth Financial Canada will donate $60,000 towards the building of a Habitat for Humanity home in the community of their choice. The winner will also receive a home computer system.

Submissions must be received by November 13, 2009.

Visit www.meaningofhome.ca for full contest rules and to submit your work for the national competition. The website includes contest details and a downloadable education module for teachers. The national winner will be announced January 2010. but not only that

Airdrie Faith Build is proud to announce a local contest in conjunction with the national competition. The top local author will be awarded a $200 RESP and a $50 gift certificate to Chapters Indigo. Two runners-up will receive $25 Chapters Indigo gift certificates. The contest runs until November 13, 2009. The local winner will be announced December 11, 2009. and there's even more

Here's the Scoop will give $250 to the teacher of the student who wins the local competition. This prize money will be available to the teacher to use for their classroom as they see fit (eg. classroom supplies, field trip, pizza party)

Here are some quick facts.

- There are 2 competitions; a national competition sponsored by Genworth Financial and a local competition sponsored by Airdrie Faith Build and Here's the Scoop.
- Contest is open to students in grade 4, 5 or 6.
- Your entry should be between 200 and 600 words.
- Submissions must be received by November 13, 2009 for both contests.
- Submissions for the National Competition must be made to "The Meaning of Home Writing Contest". Visit www.meaningofhome.ca for complete contest rules and regulations.
- Submissions for the Local Airdrie Competition must be sent to Here's the Scoop at the following address:

Online submissions to: al@heresthescoop.com

Mail or drop off submissions to Here's the Scoop
#402-2903 Kingsview Blvd. S.E. Airdrie. AB T4A 0C4
Tel. 403-948-5529

Remember... entries must be submitted separately to both competitions.

For more information contact on the National Competition visit www.meaningofhome.ca.
